The News.

There is little of a satisfactory or reliable nature to be extracted from the news to-day. Nobody seems to know what is transpiring in the army of the Potomac, and consequently everybody is guessing and speculating about the movements. From Knoxville we have contradictory reports, and at Chattanooga a calm has followed the storm. We must wait awhile to have the mystery unravelled.

Correspondence of the Janesville Daily Gazette. From the Twelfth Battery.

CHATTANOOGA, Nov. 20th, 1863.

If any man had told us, sixty days ago, that we would be in Chattanooga at this time he would have been shot for his insanity. Nevertheless we are here to-day, not unscathed, but masked in a valley near and east of the city, stretched out on the forest leaves, sunning ourselves and patiently awaiting further orders. Our entire division is concentrated here, in an area of less than 500 yards, and here to rest, noiselessly for the day. We made every preparation for a fight at daybreak, but all is quiet for the present, except heavy cannonading on the extreme right. So often the reports as regards movements are so in the reverse of facts that we cannot believe on the future with any measure of accuracy, and it is only safe to record facts as they transpire. We know not when or where we will next move, but those who should have some insight into the hidden future tell us enough to allow us to guess that General Sherman's army, to which we belong, will be thrown across the river on pontoon bridges eight miles above this point, immediately for operations on Gen. Bragg's right. A successful crossing and good footing gained by General Sherman will be of vital importance in the measures to be taken to drive or "gobble" Bragg and his rebel crew. General Thomas commands the centre at and about this city, while General Hooker is working faithfully and accomplishing much on the right. General Grant, the nation's hero, is here, and with his able corps of generals will in due time dispose of the rebels about to the satisfaction of the country.

We were all favored with seeing General Hooker yesterday. He came out to the roadside fronting his quarters, evidently desiring to see the veterans of the army of the west, as they appeared. The General is a fine, soldierly appearing man, mild expression, hale complexion, hair rather white while than grey, stoutly built, admirably well proportioned and apparently about 50 years of age.

There is brisk cannonading in the front and latterly there has been some sharp fighting with creditable success to our arms. General Ewing, commanding the division of our corps, had a sharp fight on Wednesday, driving the rebels from one of the important valleys on the right. Once getting the rebels started from this stronghold will open to us of easy access the coveted domains of Georgia, again quartering the quartered remains of the dilapidated confederacy.

We made a forced march, yesterday, and had but two hours sleep last night. We passed within striking distance of Lookout Mountain, upon which we saw rebel tents and camp fires. The rebels shell the valley occasionally from this mountain, but seldom with effect. From the signal station, which we visited this afternoon, can be seen distinctly the position of the rebels.

How to ESCAPE THE DRAFT.—Rev. Mr. Burdick, of Watertown, who has been "grafted into the army," recently preached a sermon in his church on "escaping the draft." The plan advocated was to go into the army at once, and the reverend gentleman, it is understood, intends to practice what he preaches.

Highly Sensitive.—Rev. Mr. Green, of the Presbyterian church in Madison, would not allow "the President's Hygiene" to be sung in his church on Thanksgiving day for the reason that it had an "abolition twang," as he asserted.

Waukesha County.—It is said that Mr. Cady (Union) has been elected to the assembly, by the soldiers' vote, in the Menomonee district of Waukesha county, over William Oestling, (copperhead). This makes a nice little change in Waukesha county since last year. Then the democrats had the senator and three out of four of the assemblymen; now they have nine.

The Louisville Journal states that a large number of persons confined in the military prison of that city, have recently enlisted in the Union army. Slowly but surely the public mind of the south is being cured of its strange secession infatuation.

Harvey's majority.....8321 Lewis.....16150
There were returned 165 votes for Gov. Salomon (146 of them from Sauk county) and 20 the vote is 125,337, an increase of 26,104 over the vote for governor two years ago, of which increase 12,874 goes to the Union ticket, and the balance nearly all the scattering vote, 11,230, to the democratic ticket. The total majority is 16,150, an increase of 7,829 over Harvey's majority.

The soldier's vote, as far as heard from, gives Lewis 8,154 majority.

The total majority, on home and army vote, will vary little from 25,000.

ARREST OF PROMINENT DISLOYALISTS IN MARYLAND.—The Baltimore Sun of Tuesday says:

A number of the prominent citizens of Anne Arundel county were arrested in Annapolis on Monday by the military authorities, and taken to the city of Col. Fish, where they were paroled to appear again in the morning. The charges against them are disloyalty and refusing to take the oath of allegiance on the late election day. The following are the names: R. Governor Thomas, ex-vice, John H. R. Governor Thomas, Nicholas Green, clerk of Anne Arundel county circuit court; James Revell, state's attorney for the same county; Mr. Miller, late reporter of the Maryland court of appeals; Robert T. Tate, Benjamin Watkins, William T. Clute, W. L. McPurkin, Dr. S. W. Owens, James E. Tate and D. Claude Heady. Thomas Franklin, formerly state senator from Anne Arundel county, was also arrested, but owing to his age, he was permitted to remain at Annapolis in the guard. It was also stated that two members of the grand jury for Anne Arundel county had been arrested, and would be brought to this city under guard to-day.

REMARKABLE RAFT.—A raft of 1,000,000 feet of lumber recently floated down the Mississippi river. Its history is a little remarkable. The timber from which it was made was cut on the Wolf river in the interior of this state and rafted down in logs to Oshkosh on Lake Winnebago, where it was manufactured into lumber, then down Fox river, a distance of eight miles, and through the Portage canal into Wisconsin river, down the Wisconsin into the Mississippi, where it was re-rafted and sent on its way towards New Orleans. A long and winding way truly.

There are four immense coal fields within the limits of the United States. The Alleghany coal field covers a large area of Pennsylvania, Ohio, Virginia, Kentucky, Tennessee and Alabama, and is estimated at 60,000 square miles. Another occupies the greater portion of Illinois and Indiana; the third covers most of Missouri, and the fourth the greater part of Michigan. The aggregate area of these coal fields is near 200,000 square miles, or ten times as much as Great Britain, France, Spain and Belgium united.

The Empress Eugenie has a trap door in the ceiling of her private dressing room, through which a stage is let down from the room above, with a dummy likeness of her self upon it fully equipped in the dress she wears to look at. As she never appears in the same dress twice, and is hard to please, this trap has been kept waiting for the dummies are dressed, each of her costumes has a dummy of its own, which a little railway carries rapidly across the room where they are all kept to the platform.

A SINGULAR WILL.—Mrs. Dow, widow of the famous Lorenzo Dow, died a few days since in Montville, Conn., leaving this singular will: She gives the whole of her estate ($6,000) to the town of Montville, for the purpose of building four stone arch bridges in specified places in the town. The town in a public meeting, has refused to accept the gift, and the amount goes to her heirs-at-law.

COTTON HARVEST IN EGYPT.—The farmers in Southern Illinois have for some weeks been busily employed with cotton picking. Upon the high grounds the crop was but little injured by the frost; in the bottoms and low lands it was totally ruined. The crop everywhere is light—it is attributed to the drought and to the varieties of seed planted. A number of cotton presses are going up in Union and Jackson counties, and cotton gins are running in every neighborhood.

JOHN COVATY.—The soldiers' vote elects the Iowa assemblyman in the north district of Iowa county, and both the Union supervisors. Spencer (dem.) had 81 maj. on the home vote, but the soldiers gave Lincoln (Union) 157 majority. The home vote gave majority against the Union supervisors of 40 and 60 respectively. On the soldiers' vote, Virginia (Union) has 78 to 7, and James (Union) 81 to 1.

BY TELEGRAPH.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.
BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE.
Office at Union Passenger Depot.

Last Night's Report.

New York, Nov. 30.—The Philadelphia Enquirer to-day publishes a report of Gen. Meade's advance towards the Potomac. The report is furnished by one of its correspondents. As yesterday's report was in Orange County 12 miles from Orange Court House, the despatch furnishing the information irradiated Saturday noon, when our cavalry and artillery were driving the rebels down the turnpike towards Orange Court House, and within 8 miles of that place. Nothing but skirmishing had taken place since the army had crossed the Rapidan, and our losses are slight and confined to the cavalry. Our left wing was extended out in the wilderness and spelt disaster. The rebels make but feeble resistance and fall back whenever they are pushed. It is reported that the rebel force at Fredericksburg has retreated towards Richmond; thus we hold the road that was a direct front to Fredericksburg to Gordonsville. We have succeeded in cutting the rebel left from the main army, and it is hoped that many are already taken prisoner. Rain has delayed the army to a great extent, but they only a very few hours.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 30.—A long dispatch from Cincinnati is published here, giving the details of General Grant's operations, commencing on Monday of last week, but containing nothing later than General Meigs' account of our losses, which are said officially not to exceed 3,200.

A special to the Bulletin from Cincinnati, says R. A. Crawford, who left Knoxville Wednesday night, has arrived at Cumberland Gap. The lower portion of Knoxville has been burned, including the East Tennessee and Georgia railroad depots; also several residences. It is supposed these houses were occupied by rebel sharpshooters and were destroyed by their shells. Longstreet received orders to retreat on the 26th, and it is reported that he has fallen back. He will be too late to make a junction with Bragg without fighting for it.

TORONTO, C. W., Nov. 30.—John Morgan arrived here to-day via the Great Western railway.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—5 p. m.—The Republican just issued says that up to this day there has been much fighting by regiments, brigades, divisions and corps, but there has not been a general battle, and while we have been warring temporarily in skirmishes, the result is that Lee has been defeated and has been gradually falling back, and from present appearances will attempt to make a grand stand at Hanover Junction or Gordonsville.

CHATTANOOGA, Nov. 30.—There has been no fighting in Northern Georgia for the past two days. Our troops hold the country as far as Ringgold and Cleveland. The enemy is being driven back. The campaign is probably ended. No news from Burnside at headquarters. The siege of Knoxville is no doubt raised, and the rebel force in East Tennessee, can only escape by a miracle or miraculous fighting.

The fruits of the victory are 6000 prisoners, 48 guns, 7000 stores of small arms and a large quantity of stores. Our total casualties will not exceed 4000.

Cairo, Nov. 30.—Fourteen Jews, connected with Maj. De Vasse in the fraud on the revenue department, at this post, have been arrested in Memphis, and their stocks and money seized. The parties are confined in the Irving block. It is thought the goods and money seized will make up the losses to the government. $60,000 in greenbacks were taken from one of the parties arrested. Major De Vasse was in Chicago on Monday, the 23rd inst. Halliday Brothers, at this place, are in no way connected with the frauds. De Vasse, at one time, was chief clerk of this shipping house.

The river is rising rapidly. Weather clear and cold.

St. Louis, Nov. 30.—A bill has been introduced into the legislature to sell out the Pacific railroad to J. C. Fremont and others, for seven million dollars, payable in state bonds. This is the scheme favored by McKinstry, General Denyer, and others. It was passed to the first reading in the senate, by a vote of 13 to 9. The parties are to be required to give bonds to complete the road to Kansas City in eighteen months.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—Government has direct advice from Burnside's situation on Wednesday night last. Longstreet had not abandoned the siege of the place. Burnside has abundance of supplies to last a protracted siege. As Longstreet's retreat to Bragg is not clear, it is a short time, it is feared, before he will march to Bragg, at the upper end of the East Tennessee valley, where a railroad runs direct to Abingdon, Lynchburg, and Richmond, and thus permit him to reinforce Lee. This, however, cannot happen before the present campaign in Virginia is made decisive.

To-day's Report.

(Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.)

MORNING DISPATCHES.

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—The Times has the following special: Washington, Nov. 30.—Army officers from Bealton Station to report heavy cannonading heard since early this morning in the direction of Orange Court House. The firing is not loud, but it is reported that the possibility of it being a general engagement was in progress at the time they last heard the firing, which was at 11 a. m. to-day. Lee's whole force is supposed to be at Orange Court House and Gordonsville. Supplies are dispatched to Meade by the new route. The weather is fairly cold, and has been since yesterday. The badly wounded left out last night, and those to be left out tonight where they fall, must certainly die. They fight without overcoat.

New York, Dec. 1.—The following news by the steam City of New York, is not covered by the Scotia's despatches. The H. H. ship arrived at Columbus, Ga., on Oct. 24. She reports having met the Alabama in the Bay of Bengal. She signalled the Alabama, and immediately on receiving her answer, set sail with steam, holding her course.

The Russian ambassador at Paris had communicated the reply of Prince Gortschakoff to the invitation to the Russian chieftain. It is, in substance, that Russia will take part therein, but not until the pacification of Poland.

It is stated that Lord Brougham at a source in M. Thiers' salon in Paris, spoke freely of his conviction that the congress is impossible, and that the intention of England and Austria to make their participation in the congress dependent on the reply of France to certain preliminary questions which would not meet with a favorable reception at Paris.

New York, Dec. 1.—The Tribune has the following special:

Gen. Wilcox telegraphs from Cumberland Gap, that accounts who came in yesterday, report heavy cannonading heard yesterday morning in the direction of Knoxville which was very rapid; about 40 discharges per minute, and lasted several hours.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—Special to the World.—Nothing official or otherwise from the army of the Potomac to-night. It is now believed that the impression that a battle was fought Saturday or Sunday is incorrect from the fact that if such had been the case the wounded would have reached Philadelphia by night. The conclusion is quite irresistible.

Lee has continued to fall back to save his own line of communication with Richmond, and if such be the case it is quite evident that General Meade's plans, so far as known to be in operation, are working successfully. The star this evening says, if Meade should be defeated in battle, he could easily fall back on Fredericksburg, where he could soon receive supplies from Aquia Creek, adding that the rail road from that place to Fredericksburg is very nearly in working order already. Unless disaster follows our arms, it is not so clear that Fredericksburg is to be the future base of supplies. It may be added that the government has not received one word from General Meade since he left Culpeper.

New York, Dec. 1.—The Herald has the following:—Baltimore, Station 715, Nov. 30th. Mail received from the army has not been returned over this route and probably will not be. No wounded men have been brought in from the army, and no hospital cars have been run up from Alexandria. Very heavy cannonading was heard this morning, but not afterwards during the day, in the direction of Chancellorsville. It was heard more distinctly at Bealton, Warrenton Junction, Nokesville and Manassas than here. No firing heard yesterday. The belief is that no general battle has been fought. An order is reported to have been issued by General Meade forbidding correspondents from leaving the front, or communicating with the rear.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 1st.—Major General Foster arrived from Cumberland Gap yesterday, en route to Knoxville. Nothing later from Burnside.

John Morgan telegraphed to Columbus from Toronto yesterday announcing his arrival there.

The number of men mustered into the service from this state averages 400 per week.

A dispatch from Chattanooga says sufficient reinforcements, under Gordon Granger, have been sent to Burnside to insure his success. Bragg's main force is reported beyond Dalton. Stragglers are still coming in.

Henry Andrews, of the 124th Ohio, has been sentenced to be shot January 31, for desertion. Fifteen hundred Chattanooga prisoners arrived at Louisville last night. General Lee is very troublesome on the Cumberland river. Boats are fired into, and houses and citizens robbed, and property carried off or destroyed.

Senator Sprague arrived at Columbus yesterday.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—The Herald's Washington dispatch of the 30th says that much anxiety is manifested this afternoon regarding Meade's army to-day.

Floor quiet and unchanged. Wheat a shade lower and quiet. Milwaukee club 1504 1/2. Corn quiet. Oats opened firmer, closed heavy. Pork steady. Stocking dull, 63 1/2. Money 6 1/2. Sterling 44 1/2. Gold 125 1/2.

MILWAUKEE, Dec. 1.—Floor dull and drooping, no sales. Wheat is lower. No 1 spring, store 1.08. Despatched hogs steady.

Important letter from Solicitor Whiting of the War Department.

The following is a letter addressed by the Solicitor of the War Department to a gentleman in Boston, in reply to some inquiries for information as to the cause of the cessation of the exchange of prisoners:

WAR DEPARTMENT, Washington City, Nov. 20, 1863. DEAR SIR: Your letter of the 17th has been received, in which you enquire whether any documents are now accessible, or will be likely soon to be published, by our government relating to the exchange of prisoners of war; and you justly remark that the subject excites a deep interest in consequence of the suffering of our men at Richmond.

The correspondence published in the Richmond papers does not, it is thought, present the matter in its true light. A few days the entire correspondence will be made public by authority.

There are several serious difficulties in the way of continuing an exchange of prisoners. One is the lack of funds of the army in putting in the active service many thousands of paroled prisoners; captured at Vicksburg and elsewhere, without releasing any of our soldiers held by them. But another difficulty of still greater importance is the peremptory refusal by the enemy to exchange colored soldiers and their white officers upon any terms whatever. It is well known that they have threatened to sell colored captured soldiers into slavery, and to hang their white officers.

The government demands that all officers and soldiers should be fairly exchanged, otherwise no more prisoners of war will be given up. The fact of the government is pledged to these officers and troops that they shall be protected, and it cannot and will not abandon to the savage cruelty of slave-mongers a single officer or soldier who has been called on to defend the flag of his country, and thus exposed to the hazards of war.

It has been suggested that exchanges might go on until all except the colored troops and their white officers have been given up. But if they were allowed the rebels would not only be relieved of the burden of maintaining our troops, but they would get back their own men, retaining their power over the very persons whom we are solemnly bound to rescue, and upon whom they could then, without fear of retaliation, carry into execution the inhuman cruelties they have so harshly threatened.

The president has ordered that the stern law of retaliation shall without hesitation be enforced, to avenge the death of the first Union soldier of whatever color, whom the enemy shall in cold blood, destroy, or sell into slavery. All other questions between us may be postponed for further settlement, but the fair exchange of colored soldiers and their white officers will be insisted on by the government before another rebel soldier or officer will be exchanged.

The sufferings of our men in Richmond are a subject of deep regret and sympathy here; and we have no want of effort to afford all possible relief. Very truly yours, WILLIAM WHEATON.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—How HOOKER CARRIED MISTERY. Dispatches from Chattanooga speak in the most glowing terms of the part of Hooker's corps which stormed Missionary Ridge, and subsequently pursued their advantage by attacking other positions held by the enemy. Sheridan and

Wood's divisions, now under Hooker, went over the ground, which was deemed perfectly impracticable, and climbed precipitous places where no commander would have thought of ordering his troops.

They acted under no orders from superior officers, but after taking Missionary Ridge, they swept on in one relentless wave of attack. The ground they crossed was enfiladed on both right and left. They were subject also to a heavy fire from some of the precipitous hills, and some of them had to throw down their muskets in order to climb up, but they still went ahead, and in some cases absolutely plunged into rebel rifle pits and attacked the enemy with their fists.

MARRIED. In Darien, Walworth Co., on Sunday, Nov. 20, 1863, by Rev. G. W. Lawrence, Mr. RICHARD A. JOHNSON, 310 and Miss MARY J. daughter of A. H. JOHNSON, both of Darien.

At the residence of the bride's father, in the town of Milton, on the 26th of November, 1863, by Rev. A. Walker, Mr. JOHN T. MANUEL, of Harmony, and Miss JANE ADAMS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Substitute Wanted. I WILL PAY TWO HUNDRED DOLLARS for more than one accurate substitute to take my place in the I. R. Pay at the Market on the Bridge. The money will be paid when the substitute is accepted by the merchant concerned. CHAS. E. BROWN, Janesville, Dec. 1, 1863.

MILK TICKETS LOST. A SMALL TEN BOX containing a quantity of MILK TICKETS, with my name, was lost yesterday afternoon in Main street between Spring Brook and the American House. A liberal reward will be paid for the recovery, if left with no one at the office. H. HOWELL, deldawid Janesville, Dec. 1st, 1863.

VALUABLE WOOD LAND FOR SALE. 80 ACRES in Johnston, twelve miles from the city of Janesville; there is timber on the land, and a great deal of good wood. The land is of good quality—price $2000 in cash. Apply to deldawid J. E. BROWN, at Janesville.

LAND FOR SALE IN MAGNOLIA. 80 ACRES, unimproved, mostly prairie, situated about 10 miles from Janesville, and 10 miles from the city of Janesville. It is a very fine tract of land, and is well adapted for farming. The price is $2000 in cash. Apply to deldawid J. E. BROWN, at Janesville.

FAMILY DYE COLORS. Patented October 13, 1863. Black, for Silk, Dark Blue, Light Blue, Green, Orange, Red, Brown, Yellow, Purple, Pink, White, and all shades of color. For full particulars, apply to deldawid J. E. BROWN, at Janesville.

A Saving of 50 Per Cent. For 25 cents you can color as many goods as would otherwise cost five times as much. Various shades can be produced from the same dye. The process is simple, and any one can use the dye with perfect success. Directions in English, French and German, in side of each package.

For further information in dyeing, and giving a perfect knowledge of what colors are best adapted to dye over, apply to deldawid J. E. BROWN, at Janesville.

Lost Horses. Last evening about 10 o'clock, my team got away from me and started off in a westerly direction. One is a Dun Colored Gelding, and the other is a Bay Mare, four years old; her tail has been shaved off by the tail; she has a small white spot on her forehead. Whoever will return said horse or give information where they may be found, to E. H. CHASE, at the City Mills, in this city, will be liberally rewarded.

Wheeler & Wilson's. The correspondence published in the Richmond papers does not, it is thought, present the matter in its true light. A few days the entire correspondence will be made public by authority.

There are several serious difficulties in the way of continuing an exchange of prisoners. One is the lack of funds of the army in putting in the active service many thousands of paroled prisoners; captured at Vicksburg and elsewhere, without releasing any of our soldiers held by them. But another difficulty of still greater importance is the peremptory refusal by the enemy to exchange colored soldiers and their white officers upon any terms whatever.

It is well known that they have threatened to sell colored captured soldiers into slavery, and to hang their white officers.

The government demands that all officers and soldiers should be fairly exchanged, otherwise no more prisoners of war will be given up. The fact of the government is pledged to these officers and troops that they shall be protected, and it cannot and will not abandon to the savage cruelty of slave-mongers a single officer or soldier who has been called on to defend the flag of his country, and thus exposed to the hazards of war.

It has been suggested that exchanges might go on until all except the colored troops and their white officers have been given up. But if they were allowed the rebels would not only be relieved of the burden of maintaining our troops, but they would get back their own men, retaining their power over the very persons whom we are solemnly bound to rescue, and upon whom they could then, without fear of retaliation, carry into execution the inhuman cruelties they have so harshly threatened.

The president has ordered that the stern law of retaliation shall without hesitation be enforced, to avenge the death of the first Union soldier of whatever color, whom the enemy shall in cold blood, destroy, or sell into slavery. All other questions between us may be postponed for further settlement, but the fair exchange of colored soldiers and their white officers will be insisted on by the government before another rebel soldier or officer will be exchanged.

The sufferings of our men in Richmond are a subject of deep regret and sympathy here; and we have no want of effort to afford all possible relief. Very truly yours, WILLIAM WHEATON.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—How HOOKER CARRIED MISTERY. Dispatches from Chattanooga speak in the most glowing terms of the part of Hooker's corps which stormed Missionary Ridge, and subsequently pursued their advantage by attacking other positions held by the enemy. Sheridan and

Wood's divisions, now under Hooker, went over the ground, which was deemed perfectly impracticable, and climbed precipitous places where no commander would have thought of ordering his troops.

They acted under no orders from superior officers, but after taking Missionary Ridge, they swept on in one relentless wave of attack. The ground they crossed was enfiladed on both right and left. They were subject also to a heavy fire from some of the precipitous hills, and some of them had to throw down their muskets in order to climb up, but they still went ahead, and in some cases absolutely plunged into rebel rifle pits and attacked the enemy with their fists.

Are You All Ready?

The sale of tickets for the "Calico Hop" is brisk, and $1000 ought to be taken. It is not designed solely for those who dance, but it is hoped and expected that hundreds who do not participate in the mysteries of the

"Schottish," or the intricacies of the "contra," or the mazas of the quadrille will contribute to a benevolent object by the purchase of a ticket. Scripture, or some other good authority, says "there is a time to dance as well as pray," and those who don't dance can certainly enjoy the sight of those who do. It will be a rare scene to see our fashionable belles dispensing for once with the silks and satins with which they usually add to the attractions of their persons and manner, and perhaps suggest the idea of their appearance when the cares and labors of a household take the place of the festivanities of a public assemblage. At all events, let the experiment be made.

Tickets can be obtained of E. L. Dimock, at his insurance office.

THE SINGER

SEWING MACHINES.

Our LITTLE FAMILY SEWING MACHINES are fast gaining a world-wide reputation. It is beyond doubt the best and cheapest and most beautiful of all Family Sewing Machines yet offered to the public. No other Family

Sewing Machine has so many useful appliances for hemming, binding, felling, tucking, gathering, gusseting, braiding, embroidering, cording, and so forth. No other Family Sewing Machine has so much capacity for a great variety of work. It will sew all kinds of cloth, and with all kinds of thread. Great and recent improvements make our Family Sewing Machine most reliable, and most durable, and most certain in action

all cases of speed. It makes the interlocked stitch which is the best stitch known. Any one, even of the most ordinary capacity, can see, at a glance, how to use the letter A Family Sewing Machine. Our Family Sewing Machines are finished in elegant and exquisite style.

The Folding Case of the Family Machine is a piece of cutting workmanship of the most useful kind. It projects the machine when not in use, and when about to be operated may be opened as a spacious and substantial table to sustain the work. While some of the Cases, made out of the choicest woods, are finished in the simplest and cheapest manner possible, others are adorned and embellished in the most costly and superb manner.

It is absolutely necessary to see the Family Machine in operation, so as to judge of its great capacity and beauty.

It is fast becoming as popular for family sewing as our Manufacturing machines are for manufacturing purposes.

The Branch Office are well supplied with silk, twist, thread, needles, &c., of the very best quality.
